LITIGATION

Case No. 2:22-cv-00529-GMN-NJK

Order

[Docket No. 96]

Pending before the Court is Defendant Wells Fargo’s motion to compel discovery. Docket No. 105.¹ Plaintiffs filed a response in opposition. Docket No. 106. Defendant filed a reply. Docket No. 107.

One aspect of the pending motion practice addresses whether Plaintiffs must identify putative class members and contact information. Docket No. 96 at 17. Plaintiffs respond by arguing that, inter alia, Defendant can obtain such information from the Receiver. See Docket No. 106 at 16; see also S.E.C. v. Beasley, No. 2:22-cv-00612-CDS-EJY, Docket No. 88 at 18 (D. Nev. June 3, 2022) (requiring the Receiver to create a list of “known creditors,” as well as their addresses and the amounts of their claims).²

After the motion to compel was briefed, the Court granted the stipulation to coordinate discovery in this action with discovery in the Receiver's case. Docket No. 110. Among other reasons advanced for that order, the parties sought to minimize discovery burdens by "coordinat[ing] discovery between the cases to the extent practicable in order to avoid the
